

NSW Housing Code Implementation Workshops

NEW LOCATIONS: NSW Housing Code Implementation Workshops

The Department of Planning has announced additional locations for the NSW Housing Code Implementation Workshops.

A combined council and practitioner workshop and community information session will now be provided in four new locations: Queanbeyan, Batemans Bay, Albury and Broken Hill in early March.

The implementation workshops are complimentary but registration is required. For all information and to register online, you should select the workshop and location most appropriate to you from the schedule at www.planning.nsw.gov.au/housingcode and proceed with online registration.

Workshops will be held at the following locations and dates:

Queanbeyan	Tuesday 3 – Wednesday 4 March
Batemans Bay	Wednesday 4 – Thursday 5 March
Albury	Monday 9 – Tuesday 10 March
Broken Hill	Thursday 12 – Friday 13 March

Practitioners attending the combined council and practitioner session may be eligible for Continuing Professional Development (CPD) points. To receive a Certificate of Completion to apply for your CPD points, please tick the “CPD Certificate” box on the online or fax registration form.

Copies of the NSW Housing Code Information Packs will be available at the workshop you attend.

Planning Circulars and Practice Notes relating to the commencement of the NSW Housing Code are available from the Department of Planning website www.planning.nsw.gov.au/housingcode.
